VOLUME XIX

Dr. John Urquart Newman

DEDICATION

to

Dr. John Urquart Newman

who during his fifty-four years of teaching has brought the light of truth to thousands of individuals. As a member of the Elon College faculty since the opening of the institution, Dr. Newman has made an indelible impression upon the characters of the men and women who have passed within these walls. His memory will live on and on, and years hence youth will be guided by the footprints which he has left within this place.

FOREWORD

It is our sincere hope that this volume, The 1934 Phipsicli, will be a reminder of happy days at Elon.

THEME

WE have chosen for our theme a subject which is universal in its appeal to man—music, whose strains have echoed down the ageless halls of time, and whose influence has swayed the mind of mortal man since before the dawn of history.

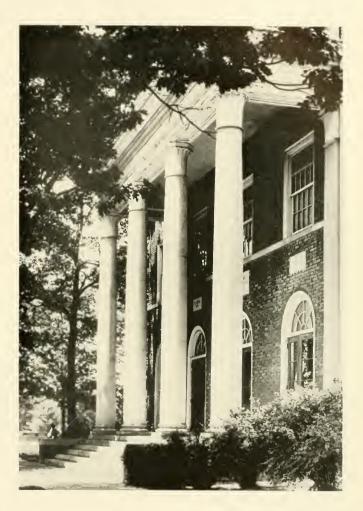

The lilting note of a Jovial Scot's bag pipe echoing through highland dells—the wildly stirring strains of the Romany gypsies—the ominous roll and beat of savage drums in the dark jungle—the weird and unintelligible music of the Orientals; and the crashing crescendos of our modern orchestras. When has the consciousness of man not responded to this never ending power of music?

And so, as we face the future, may we always remember that the hunger of the soul is of as much import as that of the body; and may we always find solace and inspirations in the ever changing moods of good music.

WE THE CLASS OF '34 DESIRE

To seek the truth, and in the seeking find

New freedom from the snares of doubt and fear.

To know the world, and in the knowing bind

Our souls to nobler service year by year.

To do our work, and in the doing know

No lack of honor, care, or honest pride.

To play the man, and in the playing sow

No seeds of disrepute or truth belied.

To spread afar the spirit of these halls,

And in the spreading fire the soul of youth.

To keep aglow the memory of these walls,

And in the keeping guard their innate truth.

To kindle here an ever bright'ning fire.

May this be now and ever our desire.

C. Ramsey Swain, Class Poet.

CLASS HISTORY

It appears like ancient history now. On a certain day in September four years ago, when everything seemed fresh and green, a group of prospective students of the same verdant appearance first entered these halls which have now formed a sacred place in their hearts. The first week's experiences made us feel like "kings and queens"; however, we soon found out that we were slaves to a little "red book". Fred Fite, of Charlotte, N. C., was elected as our leader. Under President Fite's leadership our class had an unusually successful year. It was duly honored in athletics and in literary work.

September, 1931—Back after a happy and joyous vacation, as lordly Sophs, we were confident that no ill could befall us. What was there that we did not know and what could we not solve? Our number had greatly diminished but this did not falter our steps and we pressed on toward our goal.

Kenneth Hughes, of Elon College, N. C., was our leader. Staunch and true he carried us through successfully.

This year we won the inter-class basketball championship for the second time and were again well represented on the varsity athletic teams.

The close of the year brought us to the prime of our college career and we found the sea was not so rough after all.

September, 1932—Walter Latham of Williamston, N. C., was elected class Presid nt in our Junior year. During this year our rings were ordered and wearing this emblem of our accomplishments we felt amply repaid for the many weary hours of work—proud to be able to wear the ring of '31.

Our athletics continued to uphold their previous records, winning inter-class championship and personal achievements. Kenneth Hughes was captain of basketball.

When exams were over we could hardly picture ourselves as the sophisticated Seniors of the coming year.

September, 1933—Seniors! It is hardly believable—the four years have been all too swift, but our coveted goal is near at hand. Robert Kimball, of Manson, N. C., was elected to guide us through our last year. Reliable and dependable he displayed marked ability for leadership. Aubrey Winccoff was captain of the football team, and again Kenneth Hughes was captain of the basketball team, both of these seniors leading their respective teams with honor.

Senior thesis! Many hours of toil were spent in writing the book that was to show the extent of our knowledge. May 30, 1931. Our day of days. Never will we forget the exultant feeling of receiving our prize—diplomas.

Now our ways must part, with each fellow student pursuing his chosen vocation, but never forgetting his happy days at Elon.

BOOK THREE ATHLETICS

D. C. Walker

Coach of Inter-Collegiate Athletics

Abernathy Captain

Freese Manager

Rufus "Abby" Abernathy

"Abby," the fighting second baseman, led his team to another "Liftle Six" conference champion-ship. With his Captaincy and pep talk around the middle sack, he did what he could to make the team a success.

Norman "Muddy" Waters

"Muddy" is the pitcher who can bit the ball as well as pitch it. When a batter from the opposite team stands at the plate to face "Muddy", he had better watch out for one of "Muddy's" fast ones.

Walter "Firpo" Latham

"Firpo" is the husky fellow who holds down third base. "Firpo" can also smack that pill. Besides playing third, he can do a very good job behind the plate.

Norman "Chink" Clark

"Chink" is a hard hitting, right fielder. He is off at the crack of the bat and is ready to camp under any fly that may come his way.

George Chandler

Geo. certainly has an arm for picking a runner off the middle bag. He is fast and does a good job behind the plate.

Johnny Griffin

Johnny is a steady player. He can dig the low throws out of the dirt. Besides playing first, Johnny is a timely hitter.

Paul "Lefty" Cheek

"Lefty" is not a pitcher as his nickname might suggest. He loves to play the game hard. He is fast, flashy, and a timely hitter.

John Briggs

Briggs comes from Bessemer, North Carolina. He is an easy going smooth worker out there on the mound. He can also play a nice game at second.

Lawrence "Fuzzy" Tuck

"Fuzzy" bats from the left side of the platter. When a bit is needed and it is his time at bat you can expect "Fuzzy" to do his part. Tock plays a very nice game in centerfield.

W. "Chunker" Newsome

Ole "Chonker" has a nice curve ball. Newsome is a pitcher who feels at home on second base as well as on the moond.

Howard "Smitty" Smith

"Smitty" wasn't eligible to play in the eonference games, but what games he did play in, he showed plenty of pep. He should be of great help next season.

Isaac "Ike" Lindley

Big "Ike" played left field. For his size and build, he could certainly chase flies. "Ike" is a good natured fellow who went into the game to win.

Karl "Butch" Milligan

"Butch", sometimes called "The Pride of DeCater", is a fast center fielder. He and "Ike" always kept the team in a good spirit by their odd remarks.

William "Buddy" Glover

"Buddy" is a good first baseman. Like a good many ball players, he believed that if he wore his cap a little too far on the side of his head, it would bring good luck to the team.

Henry "Red" Stone

"Red" is one of the men who stuck out with the team through the long hours of drill. Although he didn't get to but much, he could snag the hot ones down on short.

Odell "Bud" Clayton

"Bud" is a player who loves the game. He too, stuck out with the team. With a year of training he should make a good catcher.

BASEBALL SEASON (1933)

O'NCE again the editor of this section is proud to say that Elon is winner of the "Little Six Conference" baseball title. Perhaps the greatest surprise of the season was Elon's victory over the University of North Carolina. Behind "Muddy's" pitching the team was able to shove across the plate one run which was enough to beat U. N. C.

Elon had a very successful year. The list of games that were played are:

FOOTBALL

Aubrey "Dopey" Winecoff

"Dopey" has made a very good captain this year. He has been with us for the past four years. "Dopey" is a fast, fighting halfback.

Howard Smith

Howard Smith, otherwise known as "Smitty," is with us for his second year. "Smitty" has grit and a fighting spirit.

Martin Ritt

Martin Ritt hails from New York. He is also a sophomore and a halfback. Ritt is full of vigor and is out to make good.

Hunter Herrington

Hunter played a bang-up of a game at left end. He is fast, and when he snags a pass out of the air, he can really shake those legs.

Norman Waters

"Muddy" played in the line left end. This is "Muddy's" last year here at Elon. When a man on the opposing team tried to stop him from blocking, it was too bad.

Rudolph Walser

Walser, the noisy center; could certainly pass that pigskin through his legs. Walser kept the "ole ginergar" going.

Robert Stallings

Stallings is another fast driving halfback. It was too bad for the player who let him get away.

John Troppoli

Troppoli is a left end from New Jersey. The rougher the game the better he liked it. When he gets the ball and is stopped by three or maybe four, he comes up out of the pile with a grin.

Ralph Neal

Neal is the pile-driving fullback from Alabama. With the ball tucked under his arm and head bent low, he is a human battering ram.

Paul Brawley

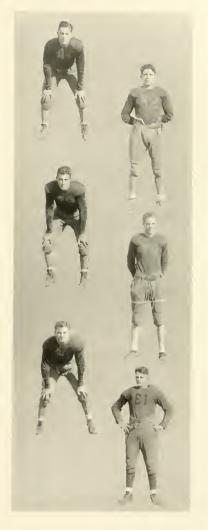

Brawley ended his four years of football this past season. If ever a player could pull out of the line and take off after the ball carrier, Brawley could do that thing. He could certainly make his feet fly when it had to be done,

Wilbur Newsome

"Web" is another player who can hit that line. He plays quarterback. When he calls for a certain play, you can back on it being a trick one.

Richard Freese

"Dick" is a player who doesn't say much during a game, but he can certainly hold down his position—right guard.

Walter Latham

Latham, although he was not able to play in the conference games, did some mighty fine work as a helper to Coach Walker.

Archie Walker

This is Archie's third year on Elon's football squad. He is a player of few words. He likes the game for what he can get out of it.

Sidney Gerringer

Gerringer is as broad as he is tall. It took a good ball carrier to get past him at right tackle.

Glenn Auman

"They shall not pass" was Auman's motto. He always fought every inch of the way.

Curtis Berry

Berry is a New Englander and like a good many northerners, he loves football. He should make a good quarterback for Elon next Fall.

Wilbur Smith

Wilbur is just another one of those Smith boys. But he will do anything to get in the game. He, too, fights a hard game.

Archibald Williams

"Baldy" is a player who is trying to make good. Next year should be his year to show his stuff.

Iames Boyard

"Bo" is a lanky fellow. When a ball carrier is on his way around right end, he always had to figure on "Bo's" long reach.

John Jolley

Jolley lived up to his name. Like his co-worker, Walser, he was a noisy center.

Oka Hester

"Okie" is one of Elon's spark plugs. He is that kind of a player who likes to "dish it" as well as "take it,"

Paul Kametches

"Matches" is little, but loud He can take a lot of pounding for a small fellow. Kametches plays quarterback.

Clyde Rudd

"Bunn" didn't get to play in the games, but he stayed out with the team. With another year of training he should be of value to Elon.

1933 FOOTBALL SEASON

Hoorah! boys, mark another down for Dear Ole Elon. Elon won the "Little Sir Conference" title in football. The team had some very good players and wen: into the game with that old thing which we eall "grit".

Winecoff Manager

Kenneth Hughes, Captain

This is Hughes' last year at Elon. He was captain of the basketball team last year also. He has served Elon well at right guard.

Ryland Johnson

What a man! What a man! He can hold that basketball in one hand and throw it like a baseball, "Obie" played a very good game at center.

John Cameron

Here's Hughes' running mate and while he is a different type of guard, he is due no less credit.

Lawrence Tuck

Perhaps the most accurate shot on the team was "Fuzzy". On "crip" shots, rarely missed. Tuck played forward.

Alfred Bevan

Just a continuation of the same flash and aggressiveness that has been heard of so often in football and baseball, Alfred feeds 'em to those who love to loop them into the basket.

Ernest Askew

"Ernnie" looks like a million dollars on the court. And who knows what he would do with a little more experience and a little less competition?

James Bovard

"Bo" found it hard to get a good start. He didn't have to do any high jumping, because he is six feet and five inches tall.

John Kelly

Kelly is a very good guard. It takes a fast runner to get ahead of him.

Curtis Berry

"Curt" is a very good prospect for one of the guard positions next year. He is fast and has a good eye for the basket.

William Story

"Bill" is another tall fellow. He loves the game and did his part to help the team. This is "Bill's" last year.

1933-34 BASKETBALL SEASON

A LTHOUGH we did not win the conference title, we tied Guilford for it. This year's team was fast, and was made up of men who could sink the ball into the basket. With most of the team back next year, Elon should go up to the top and bag another title.

HINTON ROUNTREE
Delmont Griffin	Captain and Manager
Ben, T. Holden, 11	George Taylor
Martin Ritt	VERNON BARRETT

THE prospects of tennis this year look exceedingly good. Coach Rountree has been hard at work with his men and they have been fighting their opponents. The players are showing how well they can coöperate and we should have no worry about their playing.

This year we have Ben T. Holden, H, from Louisburg, who has shown us how to play a good game. We are expecting great things from this team with such men as York, Griffin and Smith.

Seventy-eight

BOXING TEAM

BOXING was introduced for the first time at Elon this year as a collegiate sport. Quite an interest was aroused on the part of the boys in the manly art of self-defense and active training was conducted in the girls' gymnasium where a specially constructed ring and equipment was installed. A favorable team was developed and with a little more experience and careful tutorship should be able to enter into inter-collegiate competition with other schools next year. Actual competition, this year, consisted of two exhibition matches and one inter-collegiate match with Oak Ridge's undefeated team, which resulted in four draws and one k, o, in a special bout, which did not count in the final score.

JUNIOR CLASS BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

DURING the basketball season, while the varsity was on its trips, the classes organized teams, which showed much pep and interest in their playing and the spirit aroused by the inter-class competition was high. John Griffin, Junior star, was the high scorer of the whole aggregation with fifty-nine points to his credit.

As the season went:

Juniors = =	won	G	lost	C
Sophomores	won	3	lost
Freshmen	won	3	lost	:
Seniors	won	0	lost	C

Front Row: Pauline Kissell, Jessic Cobb, Elmina Rhodes, Dick Kimball.

Second Row: Kathryn Whitaker, Red Bailey, Nell Lewis, Alma Smith,

Pauline Oliver.

Third Row: Martha Anderson, Marcella Ackenhausen, Jennie Belle Abernathy, Fannie Peoples, Isabelle Dunn, Miss Floyd Childs.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

THE girls' basketball teams are showing us some hard work this year. We don't realize that we have such good material until they get on the floor. The teams are both strong. Our best forward comes to us from Atlantic University—Red Bailey. Bailey played on the varsity team at the University and has continued her good work here. Kimball and Ackenhausen, both forwards, show speed and accuracy. We are fortunate in having Oliver, Dunn and Smith as guards. Smith also came to us from the University and has shown good work here. Our jump-centers, Peoples and Whitaker, are very strong.

Both teams look good and under the capable leadership of Coach Anderson we are expecting great things from them.

Second Row: Mary Harrington, Fannie Peoples, Cat Jolly, Pauline Oliver.
Third Row: Jennie Belle Abernathy, Louise Brendler, Alma Smith, Red Bailey, Kat Whitaker, and Belle Dunn.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

THE girls' baseball nine looks good to us this year. Coach Anderson is work-hard with the team and it looks very promising. It shows much improvement over last year. The cooperation of the team is remarkable and we have no fear of its success.

Second baseman	Bailey
Fielders	Morris, Black, Brendler

TO THE STUDENTS:

In the trading radius of Elon there are those who have sacrificed that our college might continue to exemplify the ideal which it has kept before it since its organization.

Those who have advertised in the 1934 Phipsicli are members of the above group.

They deserve our support. We have pledged it to them. Advertising plays a vital part in the publication of a college annual. Will you not support those who help us so that they will continue to support us in the future?
